ELECTRICITY FROM LOCAL PLANT MAY SERVE OTHER TOWNS

Maysville Power Company May Furnish Current to Light Brooksville and Other Towns and Villages in This District.

It became known today that a movement is on foot to light the town of Brooksville, the county seat of Bracken county, with electricity furnished by the Maysville Power Company's large plant. The plant at Brooksville is at the present time loaded to its capacity and the owners of that plant have been figuring as to whether they had best enlarge their plant or wire from this city to their town and have the current furnished here.

The Maysville plant is plenty large enough to furnish current to many towns the size of Brooksville and if that town gets behind this movement just started they will probably interest Germantown, Washington and Augusta in the proposition as well so that these towns might light their streets from the same line of current.

Those who are interested in the Brooksville electric light system have had the matter up with Captain Horace J. Cochran, of the Maysville Power Company, who has visited their town and has gone into the matter to some extent, however, nothing of a definite nature has been decided upon and the matter has never yet reached the stage where it would be safe to predict that such could be done.

With the large plant the Maysville Power Company has at this place arrangements could be made whereby the local plant could furnish electricity to light most every town and village within many miles of Maysville upon the installation of the necessary system of wiring to carry the current.

The Brooksville people are quite interested in the matter and will look into it very carefully and it may be that before winter the system could be perfected whereby Washington, Germantown, Brooksville and Augusta as well as Maysville could be lighted by the local plant.

MAYSVILLE MAN HEADS BIG MOTION PICTURE COMPANY

Mr. Elwood Davidson becomes General Manager of American Theater Company Operating Four Picture Houses in West Virginia.

Mr. Elwood Davidson, Maysville man and formerly in the moving picture business here, was here today visiting relatives en route from his home at Welch, W. Va., to Cincinnati where he was going to make arrangements for pictures for four motion picture houses of which he is now general manager.

Mr. Davidson upon leaving Maysville purchased half interest in a motion picture house in the town of Welch, W. Va., but he has recently organized a company which has just purchased picture theaters in North Fork, Ashland, Keystone, W. Va., and in addition to the theater at Welch makes the company the owners and operators of four theaters in West Virginia towns.

Mr. Davidson's many local friends will congratulate him upon the success he is meeting with in the picture business in West Virginia.

The will of the late Dr. J. B. Wood, prominent physician of Mt. Olivet has been sustained by the courts in a suit filed by distant relatives to break it. Dr. Wood's wife died a few months before his death and in his will he left his large estate entirely to charity. One-fourth of the estate was left to the Mt. Olivet Baptist church, one-fourth to Georgetown college, one-fourth to the Louisville Baptist Seminary and one-fourth to the Kentucky Children's Home.

SCHOOLS MUST BE OPERATED EXTRA HOUR UNDER NEW RULING

Maysville City Schools Are Affected By Ruling of Attorney General Morris—Six Hours Teaching a Day Is Minimum.

As the result of an opinion of the Frankfort Board of Education Tuesday by Attorney-General Morris, the city schools throughout the state must hold two sessions on school days. The Attorney-General holds that the public schools of this commonwealth drawing funds from the state school fund must maintain a minimum of six hours of actual teaching each day.

This ruling will affect the Maysville Public Schools to quite an extent as the Maysville schools will be required to extend their sessions one hour longer each day than at present.

Superintendent W. J. Caplinger this afternoon stated that so far as the two sessions a day were concerned the ruling would not affect the local schools as at present the schools are having what is classed as two sessions each day although the noon recess is one-half hour instead of a whole hour as formerly was the case. However the ruling will mean that there must be an extra hour each day added to the teaching in both the High School and the grade schools. The present schedules include only five hours of actual teaching each day.

The High School sessions begin at 8:30 each morning. The noon recess is from 12:10 to 12:40 and school is dismissed at 2 o'clock while in the grade school begins at 8:30, the noon recess is from 11:30 to 12 and school is dismissed at 2 o'clock.

Under this ruling of the Attorney General, it appears that it will become necessary for the local schools to prolong their session in the afternoon until 3 o'clock for the Maysville schools receive quite a sum each year from the State School Funds and they are not now teaching the full six hours a day as is required under the law according to the Attorney General.

Superintendent Caplinger, when informed of the Attorney General's opinion in the matter, by the Public Ledger this afternoon, stated that he would investigate the matter very carefully just as soon as possible. Just at the present time he is one of the busiest men in Maysville but as this matter is of vast importance and affects the finances of the schools, which are now very short, it will have his immediate attention. It is more than likely that a general order covering this new situation will be issued by the Superintendent within the next few days.

RURAL CHURCH SURVEY MEETING IS HELD

Representative of Inter-Church Movement of North America Addresses Local Ministers.

The first meeting in the interest of the church survey to be taken in Mason county was held today in the First Presbyterian Church.

Several Maysville ministers and one or two from the county were present. J. W. Loos represented Maysville neighborhood.

Mr. Arthur O. Stockbridge of Louisville, Ky., the State Superintendent of the Rural Survey was present and explained the scope of the work.

This movement to make a survey of every one of the 3000 counties in the United States is being supported by several of the missionary societies of the Protestant churches. This movement is called the Inter-World Church movement of North America.

Another meeting in Mason county will be held by church leaders to make definite plans to make this survey in Mason county.

FORMER LOCAL AUCTIONEER DIES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Friends here were advised today of the death last week at Pragnall, S. C., of Mr. V. T. Broughton, well known tobacco warehouse auctioneer who for some time sold tobacco at the Peoples warehouse in this city. Mr. Broughton's death was due to cancer of the liver. He had many friends here who will be very sorry to hear of his death and who extend sympathies to the widow.

YANKEE VETERANS OF BRITISH ARMY MAY JOIN CANADIANS

Ottawa, September 3.—A resolution calling for affiliation between the Great War Veterans of Canada and the British Great War Veterans of America, a United States organization, was adopted at a meeting of the executives of the Canadian association.

Pearl Hughes was fined $11 in Police Court this afternoon on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

ABERDEEN PASTOR BECOMES ASSOCIATIONAL EVANGELIST

Rev. B. A. Miller, Pastor of the Aberdeen Baptist Church, Accepts Appointment as General District Evangelist.

At the last meeting of the District Board of the Bracken Association of Baptists held in this city, that board decided to employ an evangelist who would spend his entire time in evangelistic work over this district of several counties in Kentucky and Southern Ohio.

The Executive committee of that board, feeling that Rev. B. A. Miller, pastor of the Aberdeen Baptist church, was one of the best qualified men for the position obtainable, extended him a call to the work and for several weeks he has considered the matter. At a called meeting of the Board held at the First Baptist Church here on Tuesday night, Rev. Miller accepted the appointment and he will resign the pastorate of the Aberdeen church and take up his new work within the next two weeks. Rev. Miller was also principal of the Aberdeen High School and he has also resigned that position.

Mr. Miller, for the present, at least, will continue to reside in Aberdeen, making that town his headquarters and traveling over the district from that town. He will be of much assistance to the churches of the district in the Seventy-Five Million Campaign upon which they are now just entering.

SCHOOL WORK BEGINS IN REAL EARNEST

Work in the Maysville city schools began in real earnest this morning with all registered students in their places and with lessons assigned. It is expected that the local schools will accomplish more this year than ever before if they meet with no handicap like that which overtook them last year.

POPULAR TRAVELING SALESMAN UNDERGOES OPERATION

Friends here have just been advised of the serious illness of Mr. Gordon Gilmore, of Lexington, former Maysville resident and popular traveling salesman. Mr. Gilmore has just undergone a serious surgical operation at a Lexington hospital and is now threatened with pneumonia. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

William Adams, of Dover, arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a female under 16 years of age, was called for examining trial before Squire Fred W. Bauer this morning but as the Commonwealth was not ready, the case was continued until Thursday.

The Fleming Gazette says: A hail storm accompanied a rain here Saturday night and did a lot of damage to the tobacco crop in this section. The weather has since been considerably cooler. As yet very little or no tobacco has been cut in this locality. Most of the damage Saturday night appears to have been done between here and Elizaville, some of the crops being badly riddled. So far as learned few or none were carrying any hail insurance.

The management of the Washington Theater this afternoon booked the big feature picture, "The Shepherd of the Hills" for three days' appearance here on September 18, 19 and 20.

Mr. John R. Ellis, aged 24, and Miss Mamie Bruce, aged 23, both of the Dover neighborhood, were married here today by Rev. A. F. Stahl.

CHAIRMAN CHOSEN IN MEMBERSHIP DRIVE FOR HEALTH LEAGUE

Precinct Leaders Are Named in Campaign to Secure New Members to County Health Organization.

The Campaign for Membership in the Mason County Health League is progressing slowly on account of the various activities of the Health Department and the farmers busy season.

The chairmen in the following precincts have been appointed and we expect the hearty co-operation of all county people.

One dollar a year entitles one person to membership and means much to the community. Don't wait to be solicited by your chairman or committee, but call them up and subscribe one dollar for a membership to aid a cause that has done so much for this county.

Already 227 children have been weighed and measured and a superficial examination made at which time many defects were found. Instructions as to diet in some cases and see family physician in others were given. The following chairmen have accepted.

The Mason County Grand Jury will reconvene at the Court House on Thursday morning and will go to their rooms for the first time to take up the consideration of matters to come before them and to begin their investigation into conditions in the county for the past three months.

POLICE WATCHING AUTOMOBILES

The police are still on the trail of automobiles whose drivers are breaking the speed and traffic laws. There has been considerable complaint about speeding throughout the East and the West ends of the city and the police on Tuesday evening were keeping a close watch on things.

ANOTHER MEETING TO PLAN FOR THE BIG TOBACCO FAIR

Meeting of Chamber of Commerce Directors and Tobacco Fair Managing Committee Called For Thursday Evening to Make Definite Plans.

At a meeting held several weeks ago, it was tentatively agreed that the big Mason County Corn and Tobacco Fair would be held this year during the latter part of October and that big plans would be made in plenty of time prior to the date to assure a big fair.

As all the county fairs round about are now over and as the public in general is beginning to inquire about the Corn and Tobacco Fair, the matter is coming up for considerable attention and on Thursday night at the Chamber of Commerce building there will be a very important meeting of the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce together with the managing committee for the big fair.

At this meeting it is expected that some definite plans will be made. A definite date for the fair will likely be decided upon and a place to hold the fair will be finally agreed upon. Plans will also likely be put on foot for an advertising campaign which will cover this and all adjoining counties so that the people will have the fair in mind plenty of time in advance and will reserve the dates.

Indications now are that this year's fair will be the biggest and best ever held in Mason county.

Word was received here by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Moore from their grand son, Tom Moore, that his company, sailed August 18, for the States.

He was on duty in the Mexican difficulties before the World War and was among the first to land with Pershing in France, and while there was made Corporal in Sixth Field Artillery, First Regiment.

Tom has many friends here who will be very glad to see him when he arrives home.

Wellington, N. Z., September 3.—The peace treaty with Germany was unanimously ratified by Parliament after members of the Labor party had criticized the pact.

TWO BOYS GO UP A YEAR EACH FOR WRECKING TRAIN

Young Lads Who Wrecked C. & O. Freight Train While "Heaving" Coal Will Spend Year in State School of Reform.

The trial of Archie Rigdon, white, and Walter Craig, colored, which was begun in the Mason Circuit Court Tuesday afternoon was concluded this morning and the lads were found guilty under the indictment which charged them with train wrecking and they were each given a term of one year in the penitentiary.

As both of the boys are 17 years of age, they cannot be sent to the penitentiary, but instead, will be sent to the State School of Reform at Greendale to serve their sentence there.

It will be remembered that during last March these boys were arrested near Carmel street in the Sixth Ward when a West bound coal train was wrecked. It was charged that the boys were riding on the train and were throwing off coal along about Carmel street. One lump of the coal struck the air hose on the train and caused the air brakes to be applied instantly. One of the coal cars "buckled" and was wrecked. C. & O. detectives placed these two boys under arrest and they were held to the Grand Jury by the Juvenile court. The Grand Jury, which was then in session, indicted both of the boys and they were given an opportunity to plead guilty but refused to do so and went into trial with the above result. Craig, the negro boy, lives in the East end of this city while Rigdon, the white boy, is from Vanceburg, Lewis county.

In the case against Tom Rankin, charged with gambling, a fine of $20, and costs was assessed.

Court was adjourned until Thursday morning when the Grand Jury meets.

THE PROMISED LAND

The Zionist plans for the re-occupation of Palestine are going right ahead, despite opposition and delay in determining the final status of that country. The Zionists assume that the plans of the British, who took that region from the Turks, will be carried out, probably in the form of a Jewish republic under the protection of the League of Nations. Whatever the arrangement, the Jews seem assured of pretty complete autonomy, and freedom from the restrictions and persecutions so long imposed by the Turks on Jews and Christians alike.

Some Zionist leaders say that no less than 1,000,000 Hebrews from Europe and America will go to Palestine to live. Tens of thousands are said to be already engaged in familiarizing themselves with the topography, climate, soil and business opportunities of the region and planning particularly to introduce modern methods of agriculture. This is considerably more than the present population. If the expectation is realized, therefore, the political and social problems of the settlers will be simplified by their numerical superiority.

The present inhabitants are mostly Turks and Arabs, hardly capable of successful competition with the fresh, vigorous, modern type of Hebrew who returns as a pioneer to the land of his fathers.

It will surely take courage, energy and science to redeem that little sacred strip of land between the Dead Sea and the Mediterranean. It seems to have been fertile and well-watered in ancient times, otherwise it could hardly have been the "Promised Land" that it was to the Children of Israel. If so, the climate has changed much. Today it is mostly semi-arid, with a soil which, even when watered, shows itself impoverished. There are big areas of hopeless rock and sand.

It is more like Utah than the ordinary conception of it gained from the Bible. Still, many parts have been made to blossom as the rose. Perhaps these hopeless Zionists can do the same with Palestine. Certainly in their efforts the good will of all the world will go with them.

HOW MANY UNDER THE PLUB PLAN

Under the present plan of government control, the Railway Administration, exclusive of the occasional employees' passes issued by divisional authorities, have at present more than 10,000 passes. Descending upon this scandalous imposition upon the public the Gallopis Tribune sets up the following indictment:

One charming phase of government railroad control under a Democratic administration, is the flourishing business in passes. They all have 'em, from McAdoo down. And not only railroad passes over one road, but over all roads! Oh, boy, what jolly trips! and for dessert Pullman passes good everywhere.

Bad enough is confined to men directly connected with the roads, but Director Hines is not overlooking the ladies, as shown in the case of the McAdoo family. Mr. McAdoo is no longer in charge of the railroads, but he is still in charge of both a railroad and a Pullman pass over every line in the country. His wife is similarly equipped. So is his son. So is his daughter. What delightful times they must have traveling over the country without a cent to pay in Pullman sleepers. And Uncle Sam foots the bill.

But the McAdoo family is not the only offender, not the only improper expense paid by the government. There are 1450 other wives besides Mr. McAdoo, 642 other daughters besides Miss McAdoo, 451 sons besides Bob McAdoo. And in addition there are window mothers, sisters, aunts, nieces and all sorts of male and female relatives on the big family list that numbers over 10,000.

But what could you expect after the great excursion of wives, daughters and family relatives to Paris at the government's expense, led by Woodrow Wilson, and kept for months out of the public funds. This pass scandal is only a drop in the bucket of money wrongfully and illegally spent to give the families of Democratic office-holders a good time at the expense of the tax-payers.—Herald-Despatch.

COAL ENOUGH SOMEWHERE

(From the Philadelphia Record)

We've been scared about a good many things, among them anthracite. We have heard much of the decreased production of coal, a matter of concern to industrial interests, which probably relates to bituminous, but not to homes in this part of the country. The statement issued by the Anthracite Bureau of Information is that production of nut, stove and egg coal in the four months following April 1, has been 15 per cent. in excess of 1916, the last normal year in the American coal trade. The gain in shipments this year over three years ago has been nearly 2,000,000 tons, and the statement says: "In view of these facts talk of an existing coal shortage or prediction of one to come are out of place, so far as domestic sizes of anthracite are concerned."

MASON COUNTY IS NOT YET HALF WAY TO ITS QUOTA

Mason County Asked to Contribute $500 to Illiteracy Fund and Has Yet Only Paid $205.00.

The Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, now on its last lap before the census taker begins his work in 1920, is making a gigantic effort to reach and teach Kentucky's remaining 100,000 illiterates.

The Legislature has provided funds for the office at Frankfort sufficient for an effective illiteracy campaign this year.

The county school teachers in every county are volunteering in large numbers to do the teaching without compensation—in many counties 100 per cent. have given their services. During the Teachers' Institute, recently held in this city, all the Mason county teachers except three volunteered to teach the illiterates in their districts.

Furnished with the names of the illiterates listed in the 1920 census, the County Illiteracy Agents will travel over the counties seeking out these illiterates and all others who may have moved in or come to adult age since 1910 without learning to read and write, and induce them to attend school, but when these people come to school there will be no books unless public-spirited Kentuckians who have pride in their State and a sense of responsibility for conditions that obtain therein will provide them.

The Chairman of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission went before the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs at its Annual Convention in June and asked the Federation to assume the task of spreading abroad a knowledge of this need and of securing contributions to a book fund of $20,000.

The Federation accepted the task and Miss Alice Lloyd of this city was made Campaign Chairman. Mason County is asked to contribute $500. No systematic campaign has been put on in this county, but as opportunity offered public-spirited citizens have been apprized of the need and in most instances have generously responded.

Contributions to date amount to $205.60 in sums ranging from $1 to $50. Anything from $5 to $100 is a good contribution depending upon the financial ability of the donor. The contributor of any sum will have the satisfaction of knowing that he has by so much helped Kentucky to reduce her illiteracy.

A full list of contributors with amounts contributed will be published.

TO SELL CORN ON HOOF

Georgetown, Ky.—Corn within a radius of five or six miles of Georgetown is better than usual. The down-pour of a few days ago, did not come in time to save that in the northern section and it is thought that in this section there will only be a half yield. On account of the uncertainty of price conditions, the demand here is not so great for cattle, feeders being afraid to take hold. Preparations are being made to feed down the corn to the hogs. Farmers believe they can thus cash corn to greater profit than in any other way. Cattle has summered and grazed well, and live stock here is in an excellent shape. Forage has been plentiful, the drought not being long enough to have materially affected grass and small grain.

DO IT NOW

Maysville People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them.

Here is one of many cases in this vicinity.

THE GALLANT SCARECROW AND THE GOLDEN GIRL'S GARDEN

Being the Story of What Happened At the Magic Moment of Noon, or No Time, When the Sun is Just at the Midway Point of His Journey, and the "Really Realness" of Things Comes Out, Just as It Does at "The Witching Hour."

(Written for the United States School Garden Army, Department of the Interior.)

PART III. 88

"When is the speaking hour? Well, that's another story, too long to tell now. We don't always know when it's coming. There's magic about it."

"These leggings, though, he put 'em on me, and when my wooden legs (yes, ma'am, I've got two of 'em!), when my wooden legs were planted firmly, why, garden life seemed to run like lightning from the earth up to this pumpkin head of mine, and I was alive! I tell you! To everything in this garden. Yes; it was a very different sort of aliveness and a different sort of knowing from yours, I guess. But what I've seen and heard and thought in this garden is a caution!"

"The Golden Girl and the Soldier Boy used to walk out here a good deal, and used to sit on this bench by the old Apple Tree at the bottom of the garden where you're sitting and where my real self is now sitting beside you. And, they did say pretty things!"

"After I was planted, they made the ground around me ready for the other plantings. The Soldier Boy brought a squad of tools and introduced them all to me, whom he called Corporal Faithful. There were trowel, weeder, spade, rake, hoe, garden fork, and dibble."

"Then he spaded up the ground to a depth of about 15 inches. He pulverized the earth deeply with the help of hoe, spade, and rake, breaking all the clods on the surface. He turned under all the grass and leavings of vegetable life to rot and enrich the soil. He laid on a thin layer of fine, rotted manure and rotted leaves (humus) that he had hauled in from the country, and mixed them thoroughly into the soil. Besides this, he worked in 2 pounds of unleached wood ashes to 30 square feet, so that there's not too much acid in the ground to make it sour."

"When everything was ready they laid out the garden by driving in stakes and stretching cords to mark the rows. They had it all planned out on paper beforehand, as neat as you please," said the Scarecrow proudly. "Practical to a 'T', I say they were! And that's what I admired in them, too. She has the plan he drew for her all framed and hung in her room. I heard her say so."

"You see, down through the middle runs a broad grass path, and another one crosses that from left to right, half way down the garden. In the circular grassy space where the paths cross you see my image standing in the center, facing the Apple Tree way. Around me is the little circular bed

POST AFTER LANE'S SCALP

Washington, September 2.—Assistant Secretary of Labor Louis F. Post is seeking the scalp of Secretary of the Interior Lane. The latter having thought of a land plan for soldiers different than that of Secretary of Labor Wilson, Post in the publication edited by him, says:

"A year and a half ago Mr. Lane had never heard of land for soldiers. His relations with land problems had brought him no glory. He was somewhat in eclipse. As the official guardian of the Osage Indians he had given six oil concerns access to a billion dollars' worth of oil lands and had permitted them to exploit the Indians of five-sixths of the product. Another reason for his eclipse was his insistence upon turning over the administration of coal prices to a crowd of coal profiteers. The prices fixed by Mr. Lane's friends brought vigorous protests from Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels. They were so outrageous that the President himself interfered and superseded Mr. Lane's schedule of prices with one of his own. It was a most humiliating experience for Mr. Lane, and one which called for rehabilitation. He needed glory and needed it badly."

DOWNARD SELLS LAND

Augusta, Ky.—J. A. Downard, tobacco dealer of Covington, has sold almost all his land in this county, disposing of 400 acres the past week. Two hundred acres were sold to Thomas Gleason, H. L. Corlis and Jerry Martin for $20,000. One hundred and thirty-five acres to Dr. B. F. Workman and Jerry Holleran for $125 an acre and 65 acres at Powersville to Thomas E. Manson, at $100 an acre.

Paris, Ky.—Since rains came fall plowing has begun. The wheat crop, the seeding of which will begin September 15, will be greatly reduced compared with the crop of 1918-19. More rye and barley will be seeded than has been the custom of several years as farmers are taking to the idea of hogging down the grain after cattle feeding time has ended. The shipment of live stock is only limited by the car shortage which has prevailed for several weeks. The lamb crop has about passed but the bulk of heavy cattle are yet to go. A better tone is indicated in the horse and mule market and fall shipments are heavier. Clarke and Young bought four mules four to six years old for which they paid from $225 to $275 a head. Mule colts are being offered privately. Farms for cultivation next year are in demand and renters are making inquiry for desirable homes.

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator," she is obeying her instruction.

If you cannot find what you want in the telephone directory, ask the operator for "Chief Operator" and she will connect you with the "Chief Operator" where your questions will be promptly answered.

GREAT INCREASE IN KENTUCKY COAL PRODUCTION LAST YEAR

Kentucky Has the Greatest Developed and Most Rapidly Developing Coal Fields in the Nation.

The Appalachian Trade Journal of Knoxville, Tenn., has just issued a bulletin on the production of coal in Kentucky during the year 1918, based on government reports, a copy of which was received by The Ledger today. This report shows that Kentucky produced in 1918 a total of 31,612,617 tons, against 27,707,757 tons for 1917, a gain of nearly four million tons, valued at about $10,000,000, the average value of coal produced in 1918 being $255. The 1918 production is valued at $80,666,842.

The industry employed 39,342 persons, working an average of 230 days. Probably the item of greatest interest to citizens of the State is that of the 1918 production, when more than twenty-nine million tons were shipped out of the State, in return for which, over seventy-three million dollars in "new money" was brought into the State, and retained here, as probably 60 per cent. to 70 per cent. of the receipts for coal were immediately paid out to employees of the coal mining companies. This amount, in turn, was largely spent in commissaries and nearby stores for the necessities and luxuries of life, thereby profiting Kentucky merchants, retailers, jobbers and supply men.

The Appalachian Trade Journal points out that Eastern Kentucky and especially that part lying to the South-eastern corner, is the greatest undeveloped and most rapidly developing coal field in the United States.

The Journal says: "It can readily be seen that a valuable by-product of the coal mining industry is the demand for merchandise and supplies, for the mine workers and the mine operators, a peculiar phase of which seems to be that jobbing and supply cities outside of the State find this a rich field, while jobbing centers of Kentucky apparently do not use to advantage the fact that they are in the same State as the industry."

SHERIFF READY TO COLLECT COUNTY TAXES
Sheriff Charles Galbraith has had turned over to him the tax receipts for this year and announces that he is now ready to receive the tax money. It is a great advantage to all taxpayers to pay their taxes promptly to avoid the penalty and the rush.

SUFFRAGE IS THE BIG QUESTION AT DEMOCRATIC MEET

President Gets Into Kentucky Platform Fight (Cantrill-Beckham Fight Is Seen).

Lexington, Ky., September 2.—President Wilson today put the woman suffrage issue squarely "up to" Senator J. C. W. Beckham, of Kentucky, Democrat, in the following telegram to Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill:

"Both as the leader of the party and as a student of existing conditions throughout the world, I venture to urge with the utmost earnestness that the state convention include in its platform a plank in favor of the suffrage amendment. It would serve mankind and the party by doing so." Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill stated that he would go to Louisville tomorrow and will attend the Democratic state convention on Thursday, a delegate from Scott county. He will appear before the Committee on Resolutions with the above telegrams and urge the incorporation into the platform of a plank in keeping with the President's appeal.

More than once, when the suffrage amendment lacked a vote to obtain passage through the Senate, the President is said to have called upon Senator Beckham in vain for his vote.

The President is said to have learned that Senator Beckham, who probably will next year seek renomination, has been elected to be Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions Thursday. Knowing his attitude in regard to the suffrage amendment it is declared he has taken advantage of an opportunity to ask the Democratic of Kentucky to take their guidance from him, rather than from Senator Beckham.

In his message to Representative Cantrill President Wilson makes it plain that he is "the leader of the party." Appearing on the eve of the convention, the telegram may have the effect of changing plans that have been in process of development a fortnight. Senator Beckham may announce that he will not accept or he may announce continued opposition to woman suffrage by Federal amendment and stand for a plank granting the franchise to women by state action.

The Senator may be strong enough to induce the committee to report a platform containing no declaration on the subject. It is pointed out. This course would throw the matter into the convention for direct action on the floor.

Congressman Cantrill, who probably will oppose Senator Beckham for renomination, it is said, admitted tonight that he suggested the President's plan of sending a message to the convention. He added:

"I called Mrs. Cantrill in Washington, by telephone, told her the situation in Kentucky, and asked her to go to the White House and impart it to the President, and his telegram is the result of her visit."

Mrs. Cantrill is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Suffrage organization, and is the only member of that body who resides South of the Ohio River.

LABOR AND CAPITAL TO MEET IN OCTOBER

President Wilson To Call Meeting of Capital and Labor in Washington During October.

Washington, September 3. — The "round table" conference between capital and labor will be held at the White House between October 5 and 10, it was announced today.

About 40 will be invited by President Wilson to attend the conference.

The president is sending letters to the United States Chamber of Commerce, the American Federation of Labor, Agricultural Associations and Investment bankers, asking them to submit names for his consideration.

In addition to delegates selected in this way the president will select others from the country at large.

Invitations will be sent by the president while he is on his speaking trip.

President Wilson leaves Washington tonight on a 10,000-mile tour of the United States, in an effort to convince the people that the peace treaty should be ratified as it stands.

In an effort to create demand for ratification the president, it was learned today, will make bold statements of what he considers facts.

GREAT CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED BY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Apportionment of $62,000 Is Divided Among the Churches of the District—Interesting Addresses Are Made.

The meeting of church directors representing all of the churches within the bounds of the Bracken Baptist Association, held Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning at the local Baptist church was one of the most enthusiastic meetings held here in a long time.

The campaign to raise $62,000, which is the apportionment of this association in the drive for Seventy-five millions of dollars, was launched by two of the most prominent Baptists in the state, Dr. John W. Porter, of Lexington, and Prof. John L. Hill, of Georgetown College, the latter is State Director in this campaign and Kentucky has been apportioned six and a half millions of dollars. Dr. Porter spoke on the campaign in general while Prof. Hill spoke on the challenge of the campaign.

Rev. J. A. Davis, of Germantown, pastor of the Two Lick church, the oldest pastor in this association spoke on the object of the campaign and sounded the keynote for the association wide drive, while Mr. C. S. Kirk, of this city, who is Association General Director, accepted the challenge and the Association's apportionment and informed Prof. Hill that Bracken Association would raise its $20,000 and roll up an oversubscription of $20,000.

In order to properly distribute this fund among the various churches the Executive Committee of the Bracken Mission Board has apportioned each church within the association, what is thought to be their proportionate share. The apportionment is as follows:
